

ON THE WAY TO MASS TODAY

What is the greatest commandment?

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS TODAY

In response to the question about the first of the commandments, Jesus says: “The first is, “Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one, and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this, “you shall love your neighbor as yourself.” There is no other commandment greater than these.”

FROM THE CATHECHISM:

The apostle St Paul reminds us of this: “He who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery, You shall not kill, You shall not steal, You shall not covet,’ and any other commandment are summed up in this sentence, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself’ Love does no wrong to a neighbor , therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.”

DURING THE WEEK

Because Jesus is God and became our neighbor when he was born in Bethlehem, he taught that whatever we do to our least neighbor, we have done to him. The Lord’s prayer reminds us also that we have to forgive our neighbor in order to be forgiven.

Recite the Our Father for your neighbors and friends.

ON THE WAY TO MASS NEXT SUNDAY

Why do we stay alert for Jesus?
