

ON THE WAY TO MASS TODAY

How does Jesus want us to love one another?

ON THE WAY TO MASS NEXT

SUNDAY

Who will remind us what Jesus taught?

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS

TODAY

Jesus said we are to love one another as He has loved us. This means we are to be willing to lay down our lives for one another as he did for us.

DURING THE WEEK

Practice works of mercy. Spiritual works of mercy include comforting the sorrowful:

Be open to listening and comforting those who are dealing with grief. Even if we aren't sure of the right words to say, our presence can make a big difference.

- ◆ Lend a listening ear to those going through a tough time.
- ◆ Make a home cooked meal for a friend who is facing a difficult time.
- ◆ Write a letter or send a card to someone who is suffering.

A few moments of your day may make a lifetime of difference to someone who is going through a difficult time.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

193. Is everyone obliged to perform the works of mercy?

Everyone is obliged to perform the works of mercy, according to his ability and the need of his neighbor. For I was hungry, and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and you took me in; naked, and you covered me; sick, and you visited me; I was in prison, and you came to me. (Matthew 25:35-36).

194. Are all the ordinary deeds done every day to relieve the corporal or spiritual needs of others true works of mercy?

All the ordinary deeds done every day to relieve the corporal or spiritual needs of others are true works of mercy, if done in the name of Christ. For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ's amen I say to you, he shall not lose his reward. (Mark 9:40).
