

ON THE WAY TO MASS TODAY

Who is the Lamb of God and who are His sheep?

DURING THE WEEK

Practice saying or singing what we sing to Jesus at Mass: "Lamb of God, you take away the Sins of the World, have mercy on us; Lamb of God you take away the Sins of the World, have mercy on us. Lamb of God you take away the sins of the World, grant us peace".

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS TODAY

We learn in the bible that Jesus is called both the "Shepherd" and "the Lamb of God". Because he was crucified for our sins he is called the "Lamb who was slain". Because he leads us, he is the Shepherd, and we are called his sheep.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Q. 548. Has the Church any marks by which it may be known?

The Church has four marks by which it may be known: it is One; it is Holy, It is Catholic it is Apostolic.

Q. 549. How is the Church One?

The Church is one because all its members agree in one faith, are all in one communion, and are all under one head.

Q. 550. How is it evident that the Church is one government?

It is evident that the Church is one in government, for the faithful in a parish are subject to their pastors, the pastors are subject to the bishops of their dioceses, and the bishops of the world are subject to the Pope.

Q. 552. How is it evident that the Church is one in worship?

It is evident that the Church is one in worship because all its members make use of the same sacrifice and receive the same Sacraments.

Q. 553. How is it evident that the Church is one in faith?

It is evident that the Church is one in faith because all Catholics throughout the world believe each and every article of faith proposed by the Church.
